Training & Development
To Today's Employees, It's As Important As Money.
Attract, Engage and Retain Your Top Talent.

Training & Development has a major impact on an individual's choice to join, stay or leave your company. Employees today want opportunity for skill development and career growth, and to be part of a company that offers a continuous learning culture. In order to attract and retain great people, you need to develop and promote Training & Development programs to demonstrate your company's investment in employees. Salopek & Associates' Workshops and Lunch 'N' Learn Training & Development sessions offer a convenient and cost effective option. Our HR Consultants come to your office to deliver training over a one or two hour period on a range of timely topics that will support your people and organization. Demonstrating your commitment to employee growth with a small investment in Training & Development results in a large return in your organization's ability to attract, engage and retain employees who are developing their skills, while promoting your company as an employer of choice to prospective professionals.
